

ART WALK FAQ

What is the First Wednesday Art Walk?

The First Wednesday Art Walk in Downtown Jacksonville is a program developed and promoted by Downtown Vision, Inc. to bring people to the historical and cultural center of the city to appreciate Jacksonville's deep pool of creative talent. There are several independent venues serving as galleries that feature local, original work. All locations are approximately within a 6 block radius of one another. A map of the galleries can be acquired at any of the venues, including MOCA Jacksonville, The Jacksonville Landing, and Art Walk Headquarters at 100 N. Laura Street.

Is there a cost to attend?

The First Wednesday Art Walk is free and open to the public.

Where should I park?

Meters are free after 6 p.m. A central location to park is at the Duval Street parking garage on the corner of Main and Duval streets near the Main Library. You can also visit Downtown Vision's interactive parking map which, includes hours of operation and prices.

What kind of art is featured on the First Wednesday Art Walk?

Art Walk features original artwork ranging from world reknown artists at MOCA Jacksonville to small working artist collaboratives, there's something for everyone.

Besides art, what else is featured at the galleries?

From musicians, and dancers, to spoken word and interactive artistic activities, there's something for everyone.

Where should I start the walk?

You can start the walk at any of the venues. If you are a first-timer, we suggest starting at Art Walk headquarters at 100 N. Laura (corner of Laura and Forsyth), MOCA Jacksonville, or The Jacksonville Landing. You can pick up a map at most venues.
